The Academic Council meeting of School of Social Work, Roshni Nilaya, Mangaluru, began by invoking God's blessing. The chairperson, Dr. Juliet C J, Principal, School of Social Work, Roshni Nilaya, welcomed the gathering and introduced the members, in particular the University Nominees and other experts from various fields. Chairperson appreciated the contributions of the Academic Council members during the previous Academic Council meeting and deliberations that took place in formulating the curriculum and framing programme outcomes.

The Chairperson placed the following Agenda before the Council Members for their consideration and approval.

AGENDA- I: B.VOC Courses

The Chairperson mentioned about the approval from UGC to conduct the following B.VOC Programme.

BVOC in Hospitality and Catering Management

BVOC in Food Science and Nutrition

BVOC in Software Development

BVOC in Cyber Security and Cyber Forensics

The Chairperson briefed the Council about the courses offered, fees, eligibility, criteria for entry and exit for the Course, tie-ups and examination details. She also placed on record gratitude to Mangalore University for the timely support and mentioned about receiving “NO Objection Certificate from Mangalore University.” Mr. Nikhesh Shetty pointed out to include the career options or job opportunities for these programmes. Ms. Sarik Ankitha a - HOD of Criminology mentioned about the scope for Cyber Security and Cyber Forensics in Corporate sector and Mr. Maxim Castelino mentioned about how these services can aid the banking sector indirectly. Prof Sangappa enquired about the age limit for the programme. The B.Voc programme was approved by the Academic Council.

AGENDA II- ELECTIVE ON WASTE MANAGEMENT

The Elective Course for BSW on Waste Management was presented to the members. The highlight of the course with practical inputs and relevance for this elective were also mentioned by the Chairperson.

AGENDA III

M.Sc Counselling – Change of Nomenclature

Ms. Rosa Nimmy Mathew, HOD M.Sc. Counselling presented the proposal to change the nomenclature of M.Sc Counselling to “M.Sc Counselling Psychology”. She mentioned about the necessity to include the term Psychology in the title as it is required while applying for Government posts, competitive examinations and to pursue PhD in Psychology/ Counseling. She further stressed that the term ‘Counseling’ was often misunderstood for spiritual and other Academic Counseling which affects the admission process. Prof. Monika Sadananda clarified if the term Counselling Psychology was mentioned in the UGC list. Ms. Rosa answered positively that it is stated in the UGC Course/ Programme list. The change was approved by the Council.

The Principal thanked all the participants, especially the members from the University and external experts for their presence, valuable suggestions and contributions. Prof. Vineetha, Registrar (Evaluation) rendered the formal vote of thanks seeking support from all the members in the future too.

The meeting concluded at 4.20pm.
